

MaryAna DeLosSantos

MaryAna has over 11 years of experience in the animal welfare community in various roles within several organizations nationwide. Her journey in animal welfare began in 2010 when she met her soul dog, Thor. It was then that she began volunteering with two rescues in New Jersey, fostering and caring for animals at their shelters. In 2012, they traveled to Los Angeles and in early 2013 she became involved with Best Friends Animal Society. MaryAna has held many roles within the organization spanning from 2013 to 2019, working in adoptions, behavior, and operations in Los Angeles, New York, and Atlanta. She has also supported emergency response efforts in both Los Angeles and Houston. In addition, she has worked with Stray Cat Alliance, Heaven on Earth, and LA County Animal Care & Control. She currently is the Director of Operations at Inland Valley Humane Society & S.P.C.A. where she oversees care, behavior, field services, and client services. When she is not at the shelter, she spends her time with her three rescues, Thor, Brody, and Ripley.
