

Toni Barrett

Toni began working in animal welfare as an assistant and worked her way to development director before joining the Kitty Bungalow team in 2023. Originally hailing from the East Coast, Toni's journey brought her to Los Angeles nine years ago. She has a deep-rooted commitment and passion for philanthropy and is very optimistic about the future of Kitty Bungalow! Toni currently resides in Burbank with her husband and two rescue cats, Warner and Jager. In her spare time, she enjoys reading, camping, and bowling.