

Jennifer Lee

Jennifer is the Executive Director of San Diego House Rabbit Society. She also serves on the board of Harvest Home Animal Sanctuary and San Diego House Rabbit Society and on the Advisory Board for Delta Gamma Chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta at San Diego State University. Jennifer started her career in education at UC Riverside and moved to nonprofit management at Asian Pacific American Legal Center, then moved on to biosciences, and later to supplemental education franchising. She started volunteering with Peninsula Humane Society and the Rabbit Haven over 17 years ago in the rabbit room and then found International House Rabbit Society and became a licensed educator. In 2011, she moved back to San Diego to join her family company and started to volunteer with San Diego House Rabbit Society. Her role eventually grew to be the Volunteer Director, Financial Director, and Chapter Manager before she was officially hired on as the Executive Director.
