

Alma Torres

Alma Torres is currently the Interim Animal Center Director for the City of Fresno. She has been spearheading the transition of animal control from an outside vendor to the City's new Animal Center Department, after decades of outsourcing. Previously, she assisted the Mayor and City Manager with budget and policy implementation. She has over 27 years of experience in municipal government.