

Susan Botta

Susan Botta has a degree in Criminal Justice. She is certified in Animal Shelter Management and Animal Behavior Modification. She is a former Animal Control Officer who currently serves as Lieutenant I, working as a Field Supervisor. She oversees field operations in the City of Los Angeles. She has held roles such as the Emergency Coordinator, ADA Compliance Events Coordinator, Training Supervisor. She created a comprehensive training manual for AC Officers, AC Technicians, and Field Supervisors. Susan's passion is animals. In her free time, she enjoys gardening and spending time with her animals.